South Bay Doll Show Slated for Oct. 5-6

In a scene reminiscent of old Currier & Ives prints, antique dolls will be shown "Strolling Through the Park" during the sixth annual Doll Show sponsored by the South Bay Doll Club. To interpret this year's theme, unusual and fine old dolls from members' collections will depict nursemaids and their charges, children at play and even the policeman on the corner, in a realistic setting of the Town Park of by-gone days.

The show will be open to the public, free of charge, from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 5 and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 6 at the Eagles Hall, Redondo Beach.

A highlight of this year's show will be the appearance of Lewis Sorenson as guest speaker. Although he has worked in all artistic media as a painter, sculptor and designer, Mr. Sorenson is best known to doll hobbyists as a creator of superbly life-like wax dolls. In addition, he has been responsible for the creation of life-size figures for Wax Museums in Santa Cruz, Monterey and Buena Park. Mr. Sorenson's talk, during which he will show many of his wax dolls and figures, will be given on Saturday at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. on Sunday at 3 p.m.

Home made refreshments will be available throughout both days of the show, and there will be a number of sale booths where shoppers can make their selection from a wide variety of household items and Christmas gift specialties.

Coordinating chairman for the event is Mrs. Harry Berry of Torrance. Assisted by Mrs. Carlyss of Los Angeles, she is also responsible for the Theme Table and decorations, as well as the Antique Doll Exhibit.

As the largest single activity of the South Bay Doll Club, these annual Doll Shows are an important adjunct to their philanthropic program, which has as its aim the purchase and distribution of dolls and other Christmas gifts for the patients at Rancho Los Amigos in Downey.
